I and my classmates decided to organize a green activist group. We started to advertise our group on websites. Our group name is Green Heroes. Our group must clean our schools and town every week, 2 or 3 days in week is enough. We will walk in different town locations and clean streets from trash, also we will grow more plants. We will help different parks and parks. We must to meet a group of our school. Also we must to help our school. We will water plants, we will clean square around school and school garden, but our main task is to keep our town in clean and help people. Our slogan will be: "Green grass brings good life". ~~We want~~ It is all we wanted to say, we waiting you in our circle. Good bye and good luck.
